

German Mining Museum

The German Mining Museum, which was founded in 1930, gives visitors a rare insight into the underground world of tunnels and mine shafts. The 68 metre high winding tower, which stands very near the City's public park, is one of Bochum's most prominent landmarks.

The German Mining Museum: The name stands for a specialised museum which is the most important of its kind worldwide.

Opening hours:

Tuesday - Friday 8.30 a.m to 5 p.m, Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays 10 a.m to 5 p.m.

Am Bergbaumuseum 28, 44791 Bochum

Phone: +49 (0)234 / 5 87 70

- more info ...
- city map